

KAIEN

FUSION of FASHION, CULTURE and DANCE

Applications are being accepted for our third annual fashion show highlighting local designers of fashion and wearable art (including jewelry & accessories) as well as Dance groups. Each year, the show has been a smashing success showcasing the skill and artistry of several local designers, featuring spectacular dances from various cultural and modern dance groups. The event will again be open to the public and admission by donation; spectators are encouraged to dress in their finest traditional or contemporary attire. The gala evening is scheduled to take place on April 28th at the Lester Center, the night will begin with live music and an art reception in the front foyer at 6pm followed by the mainstage catwalk showcasing local designers and dance performances at 7pm.
